

Dear Santa,
I know, you know what a good cat I've been all year but in case you need some reminders...I was the best spokes cat that Rikki's Refuge has ever had this year! I rode my goat cart all around Virginia spreading our message of love to lots of new people, I taught humane education to children, I promoted spaying and neutering, I collected lots and lots of donations to help feed all my brothers and sisters on the farm (even the dogs), and I did it all so I could be on your Nice List! So, what I want for Christmas is lots and I mean LOTS of Fancy Feast! The more you give me the more I'll share with my friends but the less you give the less I share so make sure there is plenty to go around! Thanks Santa!
Love,
Vincent D. Cat

Dear Santa,
Merry Christmas!
You are such a busy person, I'll get down to the point. I'd like lots of food. Anything will do salad, fruit, guinea pig food, vegetables, I'll eat it all. If I have any left over I'll share with the others here in Rabbit Rotunda.

Dear Santa,
This is my first year at Rikki's Refuge. I hope you find me at my new home. Please don't forget to put me on your nice list. I would really like some tasty treats for this winter. I like cookies and cakes and bread. If you bring me some regular sheep food I'd like that too. I could eat all day long!
Love,
Ebony

Dear Santa,
All I want for Christmas is a nice warm bed and plenty of chicken feed to eat. I won't be greedy either I'll share some with the other chickens and guinea hens at Rikki's. We are one big family after all. Thanks Santa.

Cluckster

Dear Santa,
Am I too old to believe in Santa? I hope not cause I want something really special for Christmas. Please send me some Senior horse feed. I'm not a young colt anymore, so I don't need toys. I don't know what I would use a cell phone for or a fancy iPod but, some good old horsey food would fix me right up for the winter.
Love,
Your old girl Candy

bag of Senior Horse Feed

Dear Santa,
Thanks for putting me on the Nice List even though I've been messy and didn't clean my room all year. I guess you might skip that chore every now and then too, huh? I'd like lots of cleaning supplies for Christmas! I know, I know, I'm turning over a new leaf. I plan on helping the staff keep everything clean around here from now on! Won't that be good of me?
Love,

Dear Santa,
For Christmas I want a big place to spread my wings and a house that is nice and tall for me to roost in. What? Someone has already got that for me? Oh. Ok then, can I get a big bag of pigeon peas and seed to munch on in my new place? Thanks Santa, you're the man! Love,
Peppe the Pigeon
